

Item Overview Page Template

Interaction updated July 1, 2020 | Visuals updated July 1, 2020

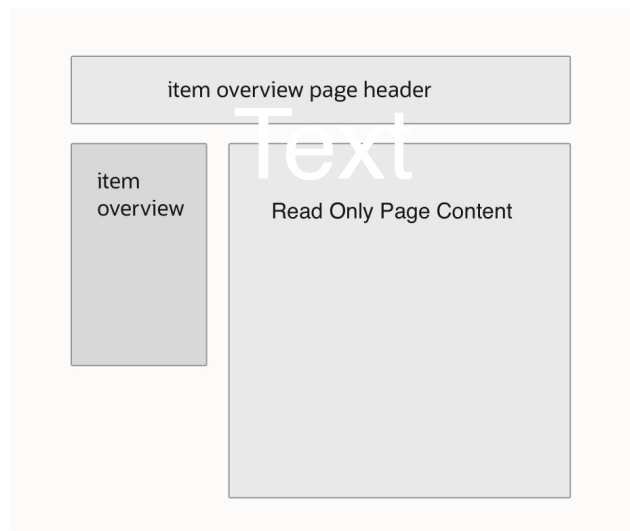

The Item Overview Page Template is a layout which consists of a Page Header, Item Overview, and Page Body Region.

NOTE: v1 of this component does not support explicit save or dark theme.

Usage

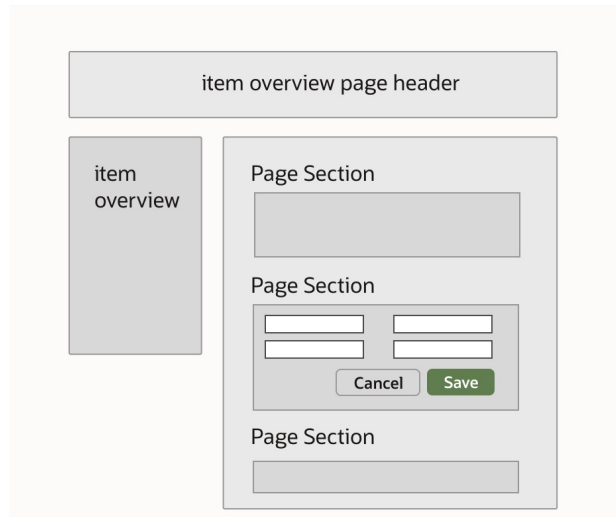

Item Overview Page Template is commonly used to:

- Provide the user with high level information necessary to complete the current task.
- Show overview or related information to the current object.
- Surface a related object which is relevant to the current task.

Do

Do use the item overview page layout with read only content such as tables, lists, form layouts, and data collections.

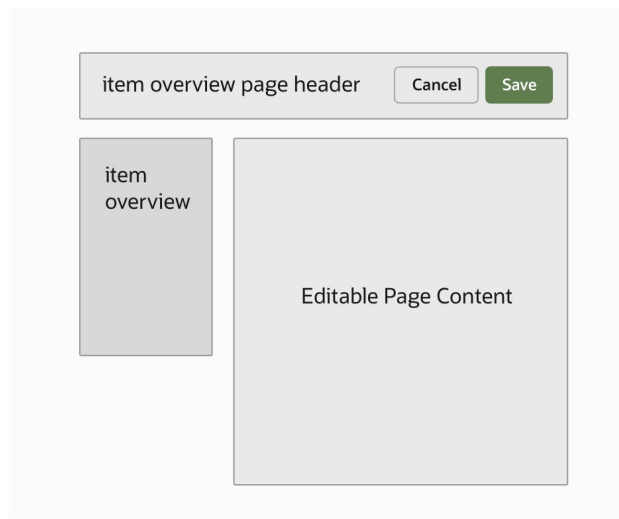

Don't

Don't use the item overview page layout with page level editable page content.

Do

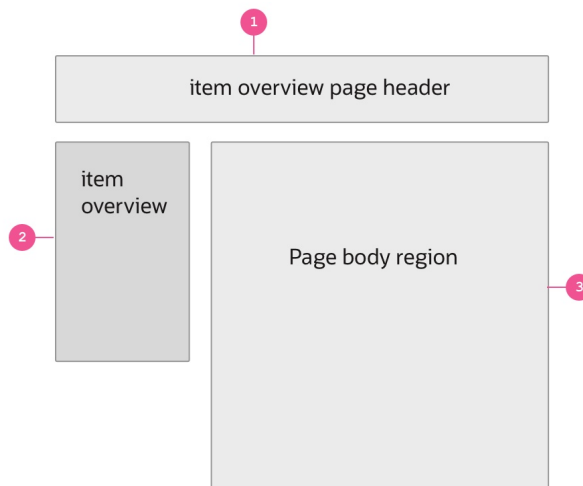

Do use the item overview page layout with read only page content that supports section level editing.

Don't

Do use the item overview page layout with activity stream.

Anatomy

1. Item overview page header

See the page header specification.

2. Item Overview Region

See the item overview specification.

3. Page Body Region

The page body region may contain an activity stream or read only content. See the activity stream specification. Read only content may include but is not limited to read only tables, lists, form layout, etc. Read only content may support section level editing.

Page Header spec

Item Overview spec

Activity Stream spec

Human Readable URL

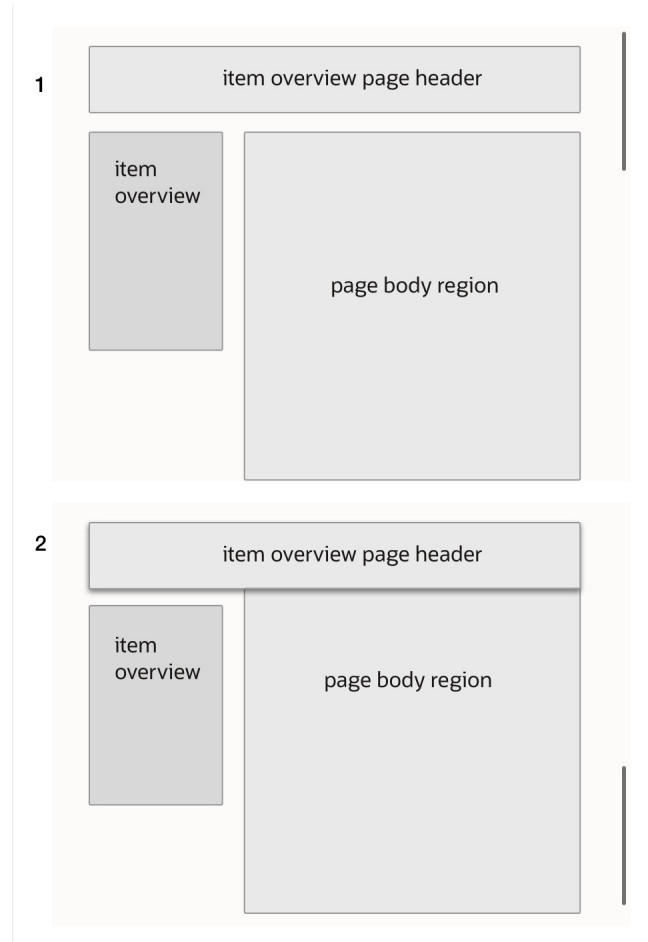

If the item overview page is related to a business object and one of the parameters is the ID of the object, it is recommended to include a Label parameter to include a human readable attribute of the object as well the value can be for example object's name, title, etc.

Example " <https://.../insidesales/leads?leadId=384598&name=Colin+Wu>

Behavior

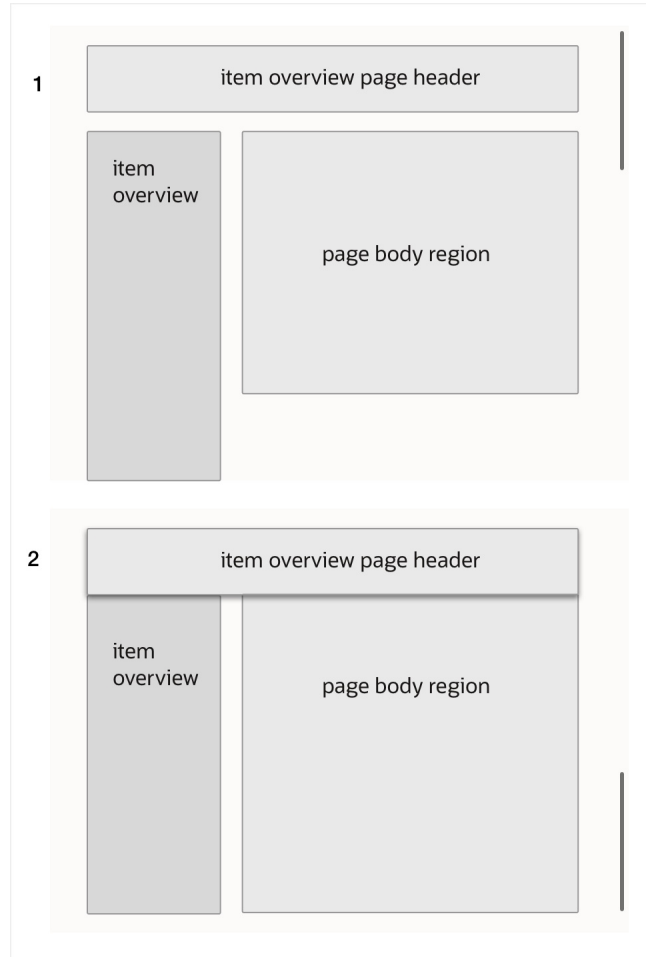

Scrolling

Item Overview Height < Page Body Region

1. Default state – Item overview appears at top of page below item overview page header and adjacent to page body region.
2. Scroll Page – Item overview page header AND item overview sticks to top while page body region scroll off the page until the bottom of page body region reached.

Item Overview Height > Page Body Region

1. Default state – Item overview appears at top of page below item overview page header and adjacent to page body region.
2. Scroll Page – Item overview page header sticks to top while page body region and item overview region scroll off the page until the bottom of item overview is reached. Page body region stops scrolling when bottom is reached, while item overview continues to scroll until bottom is reached.

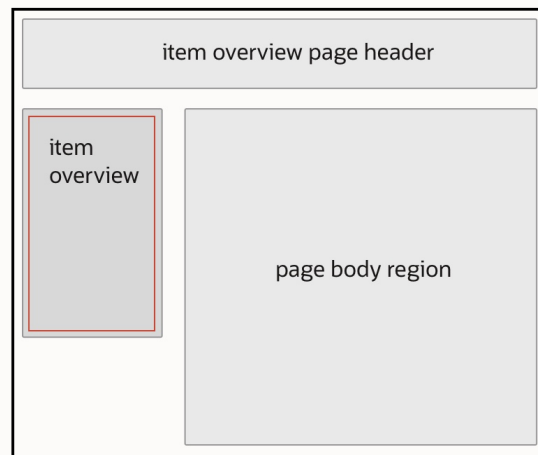

Keyboard Navigation

Keyboard navigation moves from items within the page header to the item overview to the page region.

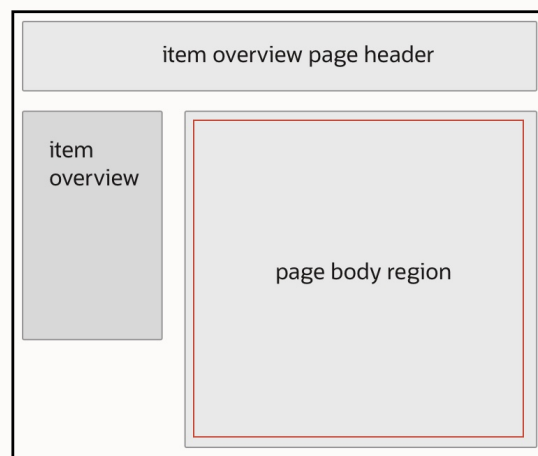

1

2

3

1. Tab to item overview page header – Keyboard focus moves from each focusable element in the item overview page header.
2. Tab to item overview region – Keyboard focus moves from each focusable element in the item overview region.

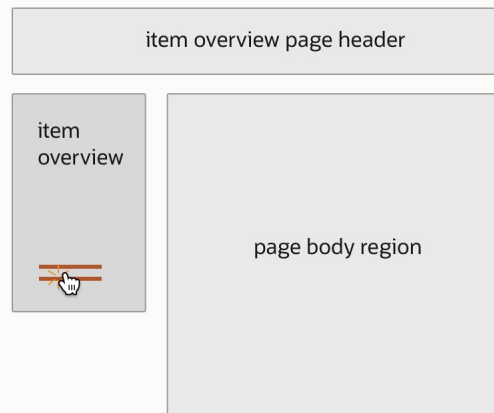

3. Tab to Page Body Region – Keyboard focus moves from each focusable element in the page body region.

Navigation

1

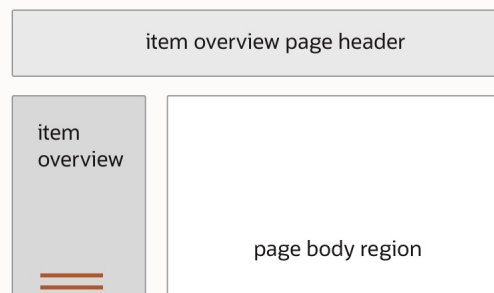

2

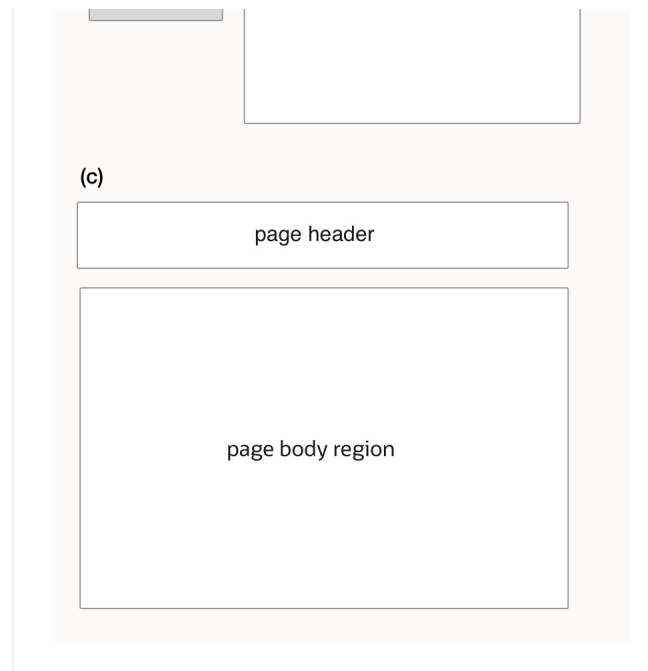

3

(b)

1. Default state – Item overview appears at top of page below item overview page header and adjacent to page body region.

2. Click Link (within Item Overview)

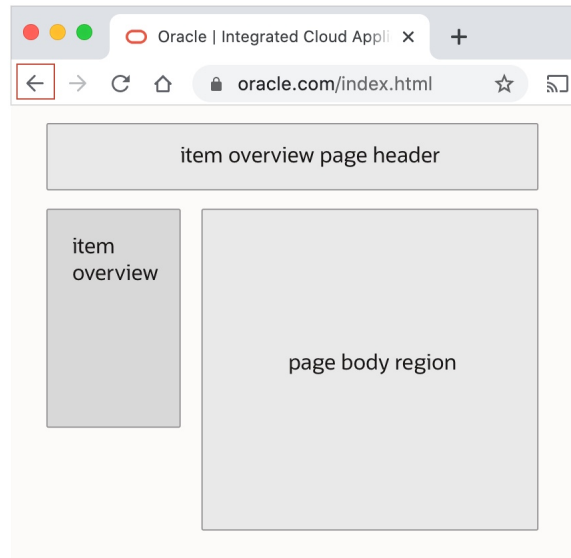

3a. Dialog window appears.

3b. Page Body Region loads new content or filtered content (master/detail)

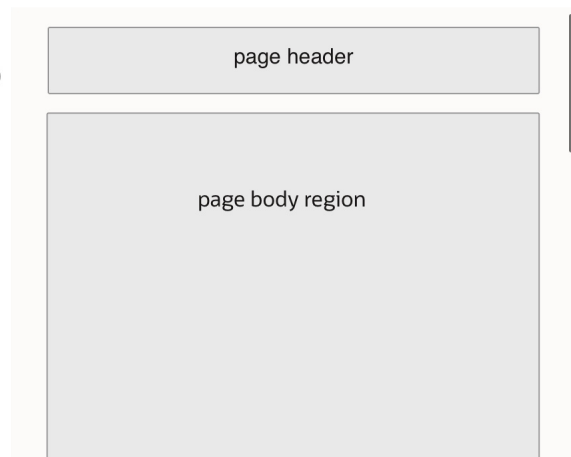

3c. New Page/Tab opens

Browser Back Button

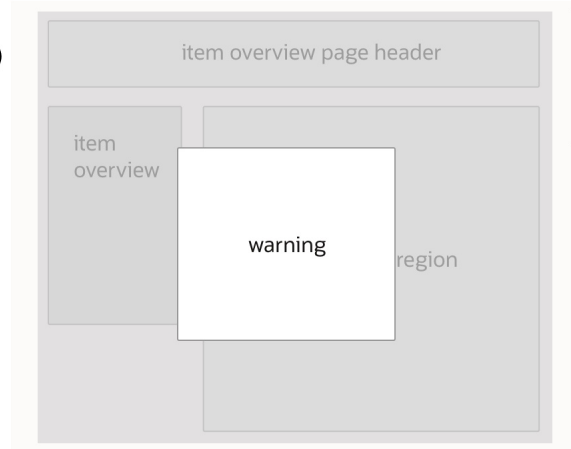

1

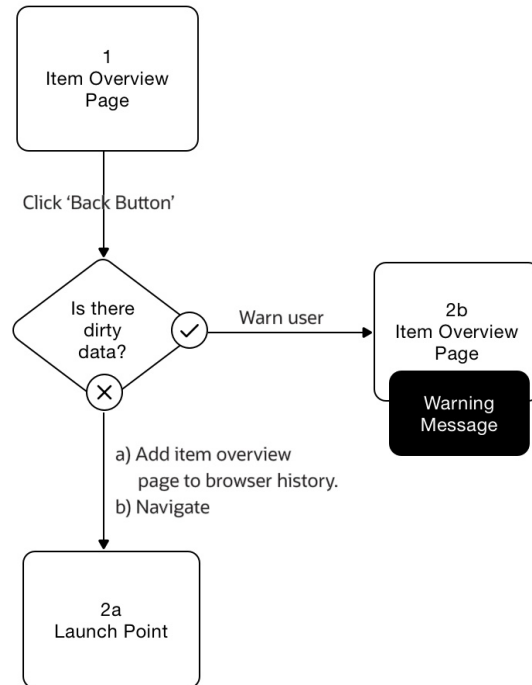

2
(a)

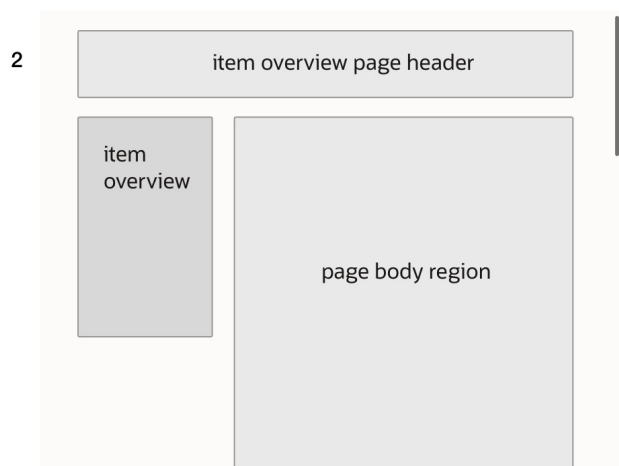

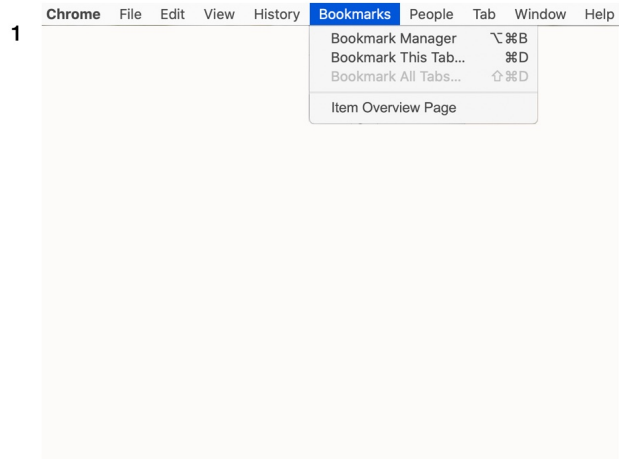

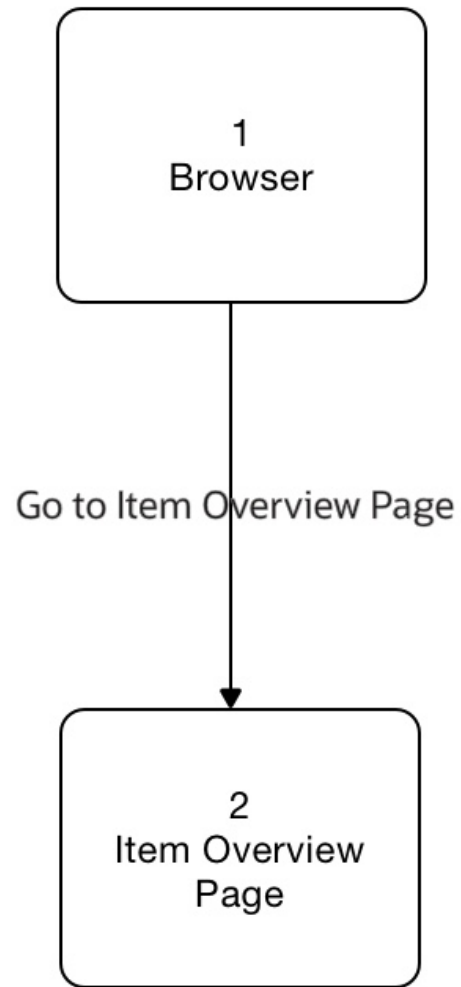

2
(b)

Bookmarked Page

Optional Actions

Navigate to Parent Page

1

item overview page header

item overview

page body region

2
(a)

page header

page body region

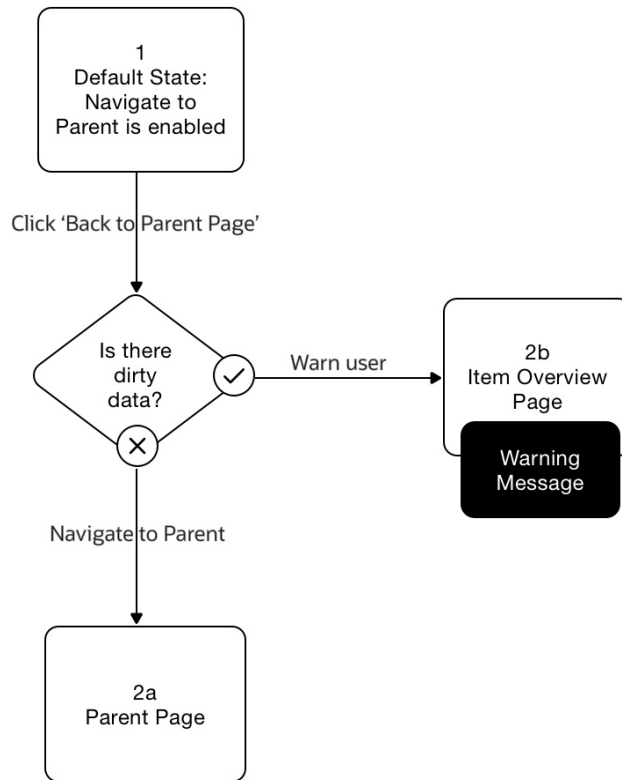

2
(b)

item overview page header

item overview

warning

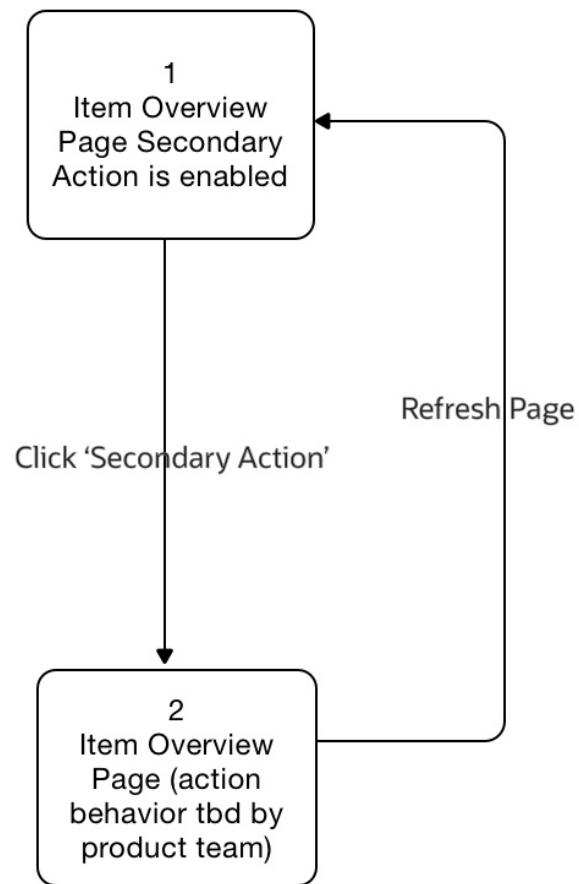

region

Item Overview Secondary Action

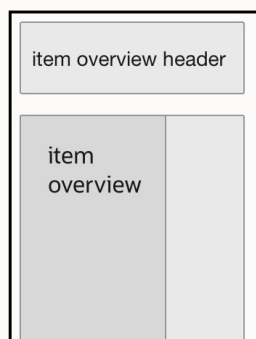

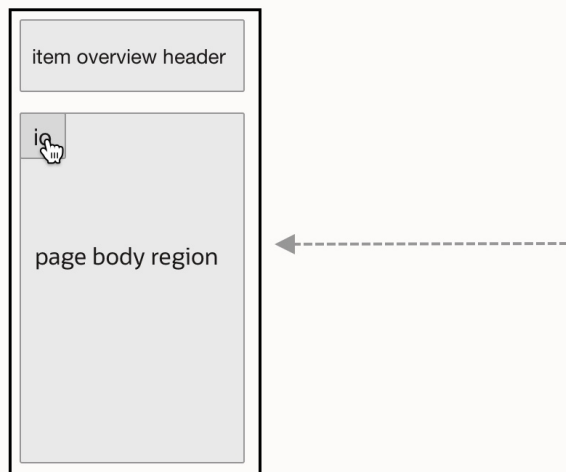

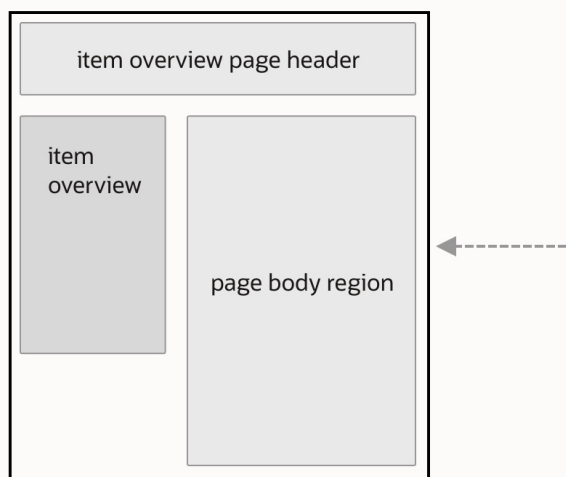

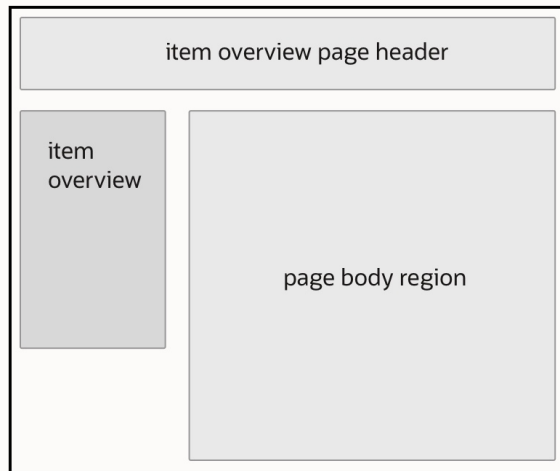

2 See 'Behavior: Navigation' section.

Responsiveness

Desktop

In Item overview layout, only the page header and page body regions are responsive.

page body region

Phone

Item overview becomes a list item, showing below the item overview page header and above the page body region.

